The Vindys is an alt-rock band that delivers ripping guitars, a driving horn section, and powerhouse vocals led by front woman Jackie Popovec with a sweet and sultry style reminiscent of Amy Winehouse. Their sophomore album Bugs blends rock, blues, and vintage pop for a dynamic listening experience that will make you curious to whether their music best suits a jazzy supper club or rock and roll arena.

2023 Editor's Pick, "Best Indie Rock Band" Cleveland Magazine

"...the Vindys have everything going for them: a super-powerful voice, a searing guitar and a fantastic rhythm section topped with a horn section. Rock & Roll at its finest." — Pierce Brochetti, Music Connection

"This band blew me out of the water. It's only a matter of time before this band blows up."
— Darrin Pfeiffer, Drummer of Goldfinger and host of the Dangerous Darrin Podcast

"They've got depth and substance and are instantly likable. Their songs get stuck in your head after one listen."
— Brad Savage, program director of The Summit 91.3 FM
